

“be born into the world,
my beautiful sons and daughters;

be born as a leaf of a tree,
a wave of the ocean,
and the warmth of the sun;

out of my flesh and your mother’s;
not of lust, duty, or force;
but rather from passion, choice, and certainty;

be born from the will of God,
from my devotion to your mother;

out of a beautiful melody,
and love eternal.”
